4 WAYS TO KEEP YOUR pets safe THIS HOLIDAY

1. You might know that poinsettias can be poisonous to pets—but you should avoid holly and mistletoe as well.
2. Watch out for tinsel and string. If pets swallow some, it can mean surgery.
3. Sweep up those fallen pine needles. They can be toxic if your pet eats them.
4. Don't let Fido treat the tree stand as a water dish—it could contain harmful fertilizers or bacteria.

WRAP LIKE a pro

The biggest cause of a messy wrap job is too much paper. Before you cut, make sure the ends of the paper, when folded, will only overlap about an inch.

4 TRICKS TO hide dark circles UNDER YOUR EYES

1. Use a light cream or liquid concealer. Heavy powders and thick cream formulas settle into fine lines and amplify the look of dark circles.
2. Choose a concealer that's slightly lighter than your skin color and has a yellow base. The yellow will help combat any undertones of blue or green.
3. Only apply concealer to the under-eye area that's actually dark—usually near the inner corner of your eye.
4. Blend concealer by gently patting it with your ring finger outwards toward your cheekbones, instead of rubbing in circles. It will look more blended and draw less attention to any hint of darkness.

THE PURR-FECT HOLIDAY CAT EYE

1. Set the stage for this show-stopping holiday look by first applying a light layer of foundation or eye shadow primer to your lids.

2. Line upper and lower lash lines with a black waterproof liquid liner. Don't be afraid to heighten the intensity with more than one coat! Drag the pen to the top outer corner of your eye.

3. Next, connect the line to the bottom of the lash line, thickening as you go. Continue inward about two-thirds of the way. Fill in any gaps and finish with two coats of mascara.

TIP! Wing eyeliner out at an angle to elongate the eye and add extra drama to your look.
