Thank you for your interest in Neuragen.

You can most certainly print that coupon to use in store and it should be accepted at any Walgreens.

Thank you and have a great day.

On walgreens.com (<http://www.walgreens.com/marketing/library/diabetes/archive.jsp>) pdf's of "Diabetes & You" magazine are available. This magazine contains several manufacturer's coupons including $10 off neuragen. May I print the neuragen coupon from the pdf and use it at Walgreen's? I just wanted to make sure that printouts of the coupons are considered valid.

Thanks for your help!
