do well for yourself

May is Women's Health Month and a great time to take small steps to a new you. Making health a priority not only affects your well-being, but also sets a great example for loved ones.

Please visit Walgreens.com/WomensHealth for more information.

Welcome Nutrition

Taking a daily multivitamin, adding a fruit or vegetable to each meal or selecting whole grain options are easy ways to add to your diet's nutrition.

Embrace Commitment

Make a commitment to better health and share it with friends – then reward yourself for staying on track with a FREE Revlon lipstick during the week of May 2 at Walgreens.*
See inside back cover on how to get started.

Here are just 5 easy steps to a healthier you.

Bring on Prevention

Maintaining a healthy weight, using sunscreen and getting preventative screenings to identify high-risk factors may help prevent some diseases.

Say Hello to Good Habits

Giving up smoking—or any other habit—is tough, but you don't have to do it alone; join a support group to get through this difficult time.

Open Up To Exercise

Introducing a new exercise routine works best if you start small. Find an activity you enjoy or enlist the company of a friend to make it fun.

Q: What is osteoarthritis?

A: Osteoarthritis results when joint cartilage starts to wear away. That causes your bones to rub together, making it harder to move them.

Q: What causes osteoarthritis?

A: Certain conditions can increase your risk, including:

- Aging
- Excess weight
- Repeatedly overusing certain joints
- Lack of physical activity

Live Well Today.
Stay Well Tomorrow.™

This month – and every month after – Walgreens and the American Cancer Society encourage women to “Choose You” by:

- Maintaining a healthy weight through diet and regular exercise
- Getting recommended health screenings
- Making a commitment to better health and share the news with friends at ChooseYou.com

PLUS, see back cover for one more way you can help yourself – and millions of others – live well.

The American Cancer Society (ACS) will receive 100% of the proceeds from each $1 donation.
